

Support more than fairy lights this Christmas

Did you know we grow our own?

Buying an assured British-grown Christmas tree this year will support more than fairy lights and baubles. Grown in Britain Christmas trees, available from our licence-holders across the country, support local employment in rural communities. You'll be in good company, too: GiB licensed Christmas trees can be found both inside and outside the Houses of Parliament, supplied from the Forestry Commission's GiB-licensed Kielder Forest in north west England. So before you reach for the Christmas decorations, give a thought to the extra special value in buying an assured British-grown Christmas Tree. You'll be lighting up Christmases in communities all over Britain. Find a supplier or enquire about licensing at: www.growninbritain.org.

'Old Chestnuts' series by Grown in Britain

Grown in Britain connects producers of British timber and wood products to markets in construction, joinery, shopfitting, furniture and retail. Using British timber fosters social value, creating economic, social and environmental outcomes across the country, benefitting local economies and employment, and contributing to national CO₂ reduction targets. We encourage woodlands back into management, promoting woodland creation and stimulating supply. We also foster public appreciation of the value of Britain's forests & woodlands.
